Heidelberg, once the capital of the Palatinate and the spiritual centre of Calvinism, nestles in the picturesque Neckar valley and is known for its particularly mild climate. Over the years, Heidelberg’s beauty has attracted a number of poets, painters and scientists. In the early 19th century the city on the Neckar became the most important centre of German late romanticism, and is inextricably linked with the poets Amin, Brentano, Goethe and Eichendorff.

The Ruprecht-Karls University of Heidelberg was founded in 1386 and is Germany’s oldest university. In 2019 it once again held its leading position among the best universities in the country and continues to be highly ranked worldwide. The 2019 Shanghai Ranking of world universities named Heidelberg the top university in Germany for the sixth time in succession and according to the World University Ranking 2019 it is one of the best in the world. Heidelberg’s reputation for excellence was confirmed again in July 2019.

Many monuments bear witness to the Neckar city’s diverse history. Overlooking the river Neckar some 70 metres below is the city’s most famous landmark, the Elector’s castle, standing on the slope of Königstuhl on its eponymous mountain. Its ruins are one of the most impressive sights on any visit to Germany (in 2019, the castle was among Germany’s most popular destinations for international holidaymakers). Visitors climbing up to the castle first pass through the gate into the famous ‘Hortus Palatinus’ garden, created at the beginning of the 17th century. From the castle garden, there is a breathtaking view of Heidelberg, including the Philosophers’ Walk on the opposite bank of the Neckar. Fascinating buildings dating back to a variety of epochs surround the inner courtyard. Situated in the Elector’s wine cellar is the world’s largest barrel, which was once filled with wine. It has rarely failed to impress - except in the case of Perkeo, the barrel’s gnome-like guard. Once, when asked if he could drink the barrel dry, his answer was a nonchalant ‘perché no’ - why not? - which is how he came to earn his name.

The baroque townhouses and their ornamental facades and doorways are a striking feature of any walk round the Old Town. The heart of the Old Town is the market place, between the Evangelical Church of the Holy Ghost and the grand renaissance building ‘Zum Ritter’. The old alleyways leading away from the church are lined with pubs and restaurants. Spanning the Neckar is the Old Bridge, one of the most beautiful stone bridges in Germany. Not far from University Square is the Jesuit Church. Built in the early 18th century and adorned with several figures of the Virgin Mary and saints, the church is the Old Town’s symbol of Catholicism, which regained its foothold in Heidelberg following the upheaval of the Thirty Years War and the Palatinate War of Succession.

The wooded hills around Heidelberg cloak the city in a stunning green. There is also plenty to explore in the surrounding area, including the Neckar valley forts, the German wine route, the ancient cultivated landscape along the Upper Rhine and the mountains of the Odenwald and Black Forest.

Proximity to Frankfurt, Karlsruhe/Baden-Baden and Stuttgart airports means Heidelberg is easily accessible to its guests from all over the world.
International language school

The F+U language school is situated in the historic centre of the university city, just a few metres from the Neckar. The school building offers fantastic views of the Old Town, the castle and the Neckar valley.

Today, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the largest language schools in Germany. Every year, over 10,000 language learners and exam candidates participate in the language courses and examinations, and learners from over 100 countries take part in the German courses. Thanks to its Internationality, the school gives learners a unique opportunity to meet other people and find out more about their language and culture, and to put new language skills into practice. Between classes or when enjoying a break in the atrium, for example, or taking part in the cultural and sporting activities we offer several times a week. With 70 multimedia-equipped classrooms (up to 85 in summer), three Internet rooms with fifty PCs, free Internet access and Wi-Fi, and a central location, the F+U Academy of Languages offers everything you need for an exceptional learning experience in Heidelberg.

Several halls of residence with around 500 rooms, a boarding school, apartments, a school-owned hotel and a number of host families offer year-round accommodation to learners from all over the world.

Specialising in German as a foreign language, the F+U Academy of Languages is one of the world leaders in the provision of German courses, whether in the form of intensive lessons in the mornings and afternoons, extra-occupational evening courses or individual training. We offer online training to give learners who are unable to join classes at the school the opportunity to improve their language skills.

As an International Test Centre, the Academy of Languages stands for exceptional quality in language teaching. Besides the best-known assessments such as TOEFL® IELTS (International English Language Testing System) and TestDaF (Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache), the language school offers the following examinations: telc (The European Language Certificates, including C1 Hochschule, Zertifikat Deutsch, Zertifikat Deutsch für den Beruf), TOEIC®, LCCI (London Chamber of Commerce and Industry) exams, ECCL (the European Computer Driving Licence), TestAS (aptitude assessment for international university applicants), WiDaF (Test Deutsch in der Wirtschaft) and OnSet (online placement test for German and English).

The intensive and evening courses are offered year round. Popular with university applicants and learners from all over the world who are interested in language and culture, the courses are also attended by employees of international companies and research institutes such as SAP, Lufthansa, Heidelberger Druckmaschinen, HeidelbergCement, Siemens, Daimler, NEC, Heipha, Brunel, BASF, EMBL, HTS, the DFKZ, Heidelberg University and many more businesses and scientific institutes. International sports stars from the region’s well-known sports clubs, including 1899 Hoffenheim, Rhein-Neckar-Löwen, USC Heidelberg and SV Sandhausen, participate in the Academy’s German courses.

In the F+U Academy of Languages online training programme learners from all over the world learn German, English and other languages and prepare for language exams. Native-speaker trainers teach learners in the virtual classroom. F+U Academy of Languages tailors the course times and content to the needs of the learner, whether in individual training or in large groups.

The state-recognized vocational college for foreign languages is an outstanding feature of the Language Academy. The college offers full-time programmes leading to the following qualifications: Fremdsprachenkorrespondent*in (Foreign Language Correspondence Clerk), Europasekretär*in (European Secretary), Welthandelsschulecorrespondent*in (Multilingual Correspondence Clerk) and Übersetzer*in (Translator). F+U is the only education provider in southern Germany to offer state-recognized vocational language training for Japanese. Recognised status has also been awarded for Chinese, English, French, Spanish and Russian.

The F+U Academy of Languages offers internship programmes within the Erasmus+ framework. This EU programme gives young people the chance to participate in a language course in Heidelberg, and to then complete a commercial internship.

The F+U Academy of Languages rounds off its range of courses with the organisation of language tours and with the International Prep School (preparation for the external Feststellungsprüfung university entrance exam).

University advice

We offer a university advice service for our learners at the school who after their language course aim to begin a degree course at a German university. The service includes checking documentation, orientation and help in the selection of suitable universities/subjects, assistance with up to three university applications, and the correction of letters of motivation and the CV.

Requirements: Higher education admission qualification in the learner’s home country. Fee: €300.

Provisional admission

We offer university application support for learners who have booked an intensive course of at least 12 weeks at our school and require provisional university admission for their visa application. We check the application documents and assist with the preparation of application documents for up to two universities, correction of the letters of motivation/CV and communication with the universities. The processing time for the individual universities can take up to ten weeks; this should be taken into account in the application process.

Requirements: Evidence of the higher education admission qualification in the learner’s home country.

Fee: €550 (excluding processing fees charged by the respective university) (A successful application cannot be guaranteed. If the application is rejected by the university €200 of the administration fee will be refunded. The university’s processing fee is non-refundable.)

Support with official administration

We offer customers requiring a visa the following services after arrival: support in almost all official administration matters, convenient registration or re-registration at the town hall, advice and appointment scheduling for opening or activating a bank account, help with organising German health insurance, checking documents for the immigration authorities and general information on extending visas.

Requirements: Language course booking of at least 12 weeks.

Fee: €275 (individual services, such as registration at the town hall, can also be booked separately for €85.)

À la carte courses

Parallel to our intensive courses, we organise various special courses in cooperation with local sports clubs, operators and music schools.

Selected courses: Football, handball, table tennis, tennis, basketball, field hockey, ice hockey, rugby and other sports, as well as music lessons and floristry.

Please note that the practice sessions are invoiced separately. The fee depends on the number of hours booked and, in particular, on the type of activity. For sports lessons all that is normally required is a small fee, payable to the sports club.

Placement fee: €325 (successful placement cannot be guaranteed. If no placement is found, €225 will be refunded).

Piano practice

Practice session at the school’s own piano (Steinway & Sons): €10 per 60 minutes.

Language course and internship

Applications for the internship (maximum duration three months, unless offered as training module in a study programme) should be made at least eight weeks before the preferred starting date.

Requirements: Participation in an intensive course of at least two weeks and knowledge of German (level B1; for an internship at the F+U Academy of Languages level A1 is acceptable). Applicants from third countries must provide a work visa for the internship (e.g. a Working Holiday visa). All applicants must also provide evidence that the internship supports career orientation (orientation internship) or is to be carried out as an accompaniment to training or studies. Supporting evidence may include, for example: a training contract, course enrolment form or school letter of authorisation.

Placement fee: €350. Successful placement cannot be guaranteed. If placement is not possible, 50% of the fee will be refunded; alternatively, the internship can be completed at F+U.

Language learning and cultural training

The programme is designed for young people keen to take an active role in our cultural programme, alongside their German course.

We strongly recommend participation in the programmes offered by our Japanese Centre and Chinese Centre. Admission fee: €225

Cultural programme

Groups are accompanied by a member of school staff; unless otherwise indicated the fee includes only travel and personnel costs. The minimum number of participants for the events is 10. School classes participate in our general programme; separate activities are only organised for an additional fee. Details are available on request. See page 27 for additional information.
